Wicked
I must admit your sufficient and I like it. (My skin
sounds like a beer commercial your right) & how had a lot of fun with you on English. I have to add you are the nicest person to and if the would had more people like
I am it would be a better place. I hope your reading your future plans. Because I may to someday. (your know how dumb I am)

"Let me say this about that."

Dear Santa . . .

So I says to him, "Well, Mr. Shakespeare, that's pretty good, but the third act is kind of wordy."

Which one has the Toni? Which one is Tony?

Gee, Mr. Evans, it worked till you got here.

When I push the button, the new addition goes.

Smile! You're on Candid Camera!

Dear T. J.,
You are cordially invited to . . .

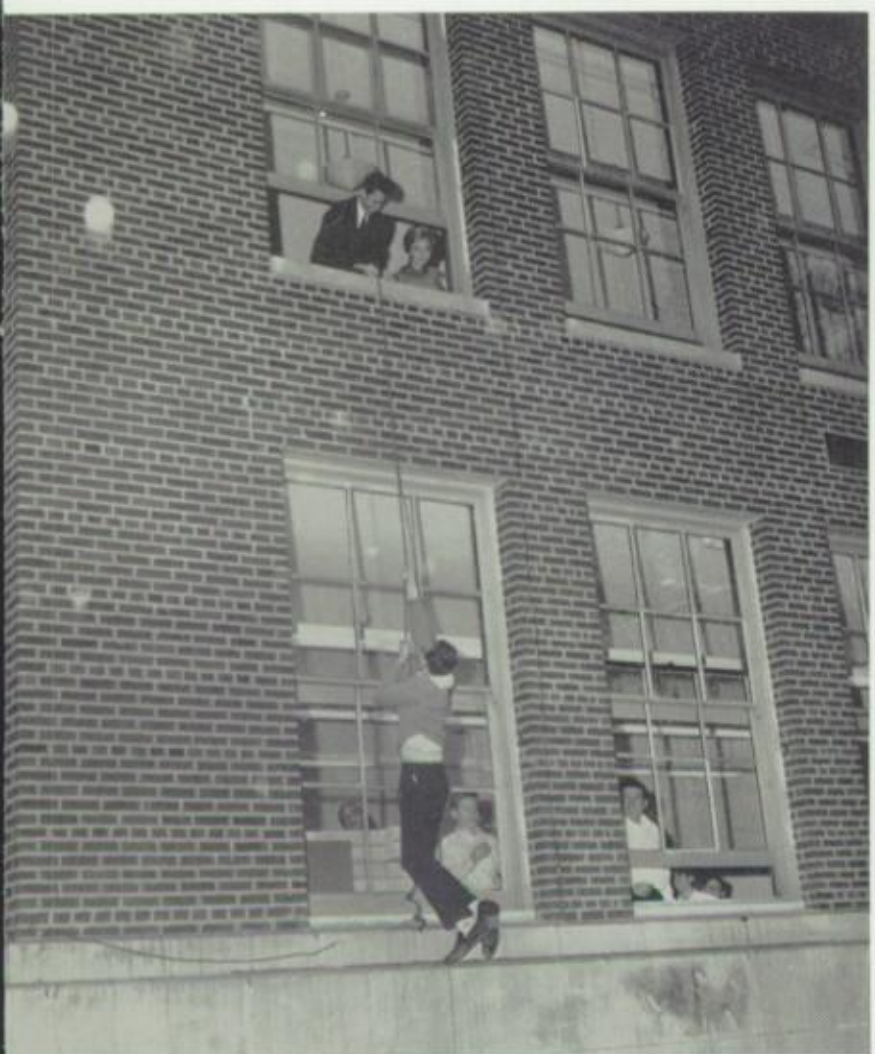
A Guide to Underclassmen

One of any student's primary goals is getting out of the school. For the enlightenment of the underclassmen, we present . . .

Famous Senior Escapes



"Here comes Mrs. Kart—I'll have to let go!"

"So I bet him a quarter it wouldn't fit in the pencil sharpener."

"Quick, before Mrs. Appel unties herself!"

"No! I told you I don't want to buy a Christmas tree."

VIC

Through hustle, determination, and competitive spirit, the rugged Brentwood Spartans more than compensated for their lack of physical stature. The year was highlighted by taming the Jefferson Jaguars for the school's second AA conquest, and also by defeating the powerful Homestead Steelers for the first time in twelve years.

Coached by George Radosevich, Bertil Von Philp, Richard Barclay, and George Reed, Brentwood compiled a 7-2 season which equaled the school's previous best record set in 1950. The Spartans also established a new scoring total of 182 points.

Senior Lettermen: Bob Bolo, Jim Elmore, Dick Felegy, Harry Herzberger, Tom McCarthy, Mike Neesham, Martin Rockwell, Albert Rodibaugh, Bob Sirko, Jerry Steele, Rick Wolowski, Victor Zakowski.

Mike,
To one of the nicest kids in our class.
Never forget the swell times we've had in English & in Ced's room.
I know you'll be a success in whatever try. Lots of luck.
Never Forget,
Joe

Basketball

Brentwood's 1963 basketball squad ended play deadlocked with Bethel for Section 12-A honors. Brentwood was defeated in the playoff game at the Fieldhouse 52-39 climaxing the season with a 15-8 record. Section play was highlighted with dual victories over rival Carnegie, West Allegheny, and West Mifflin South. Exhibition tilts showed B.H.S. victorious over Rostraver, Homestead, Carrick, Elizabeth-Forward, and Har-Brack.

Jack Douglass, a junior, led in the overall individual scoring with 327 points followed by George Benson with 275 points, Rusty Bartruff with 241 points, Rich Ryan with 160 points, Gene Marshall with 116 points, and Rich Mitchell with 77 points.

Coach William P. Douglass and assistant Robert W. Schwille will feel the loss of seniors George Benson, Rusty Bartruff, Gene Marshall, Rich Ryan, and George Shannon. Next year's team can look forward to the return of juniors Rich Mitchell and Jack Douglass.

Track

Twelve lettermen return from last year's successful season to strengthen the potential of this year's track team. Jim Elmore and Jack Vitale contend for points in the dashes. Harry Herzberger and Jack Rozzo along with Rich Ryan and Carl Tannenbaum are featured in the 440-yard dash, the one-half mile run, and the mile run. Gary Barchfeld and Bob Kerr add strength to these events. Jim McCattney represents the Spartans in the high and low hurdles. In pole vaulting Mike Neesham and Russ Luck face the schedule's competitors. Dick Felegy, throwing the javelin, is the only letterman in the field events.

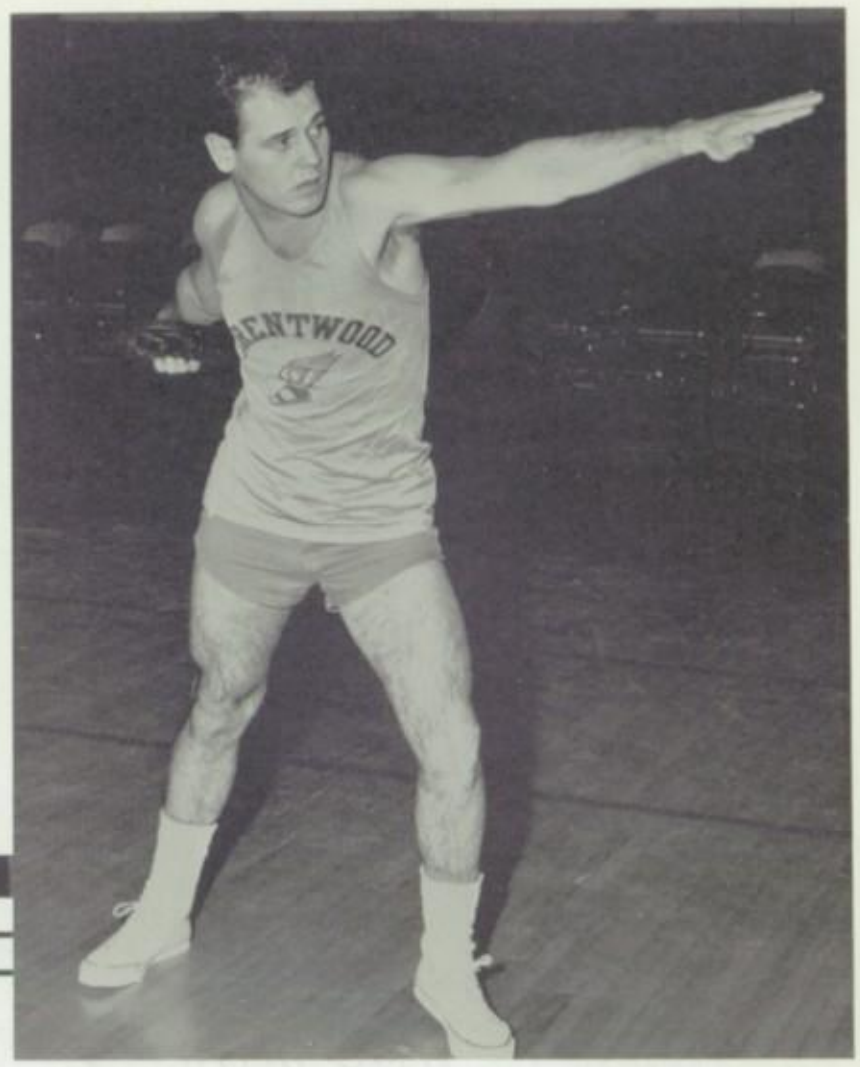
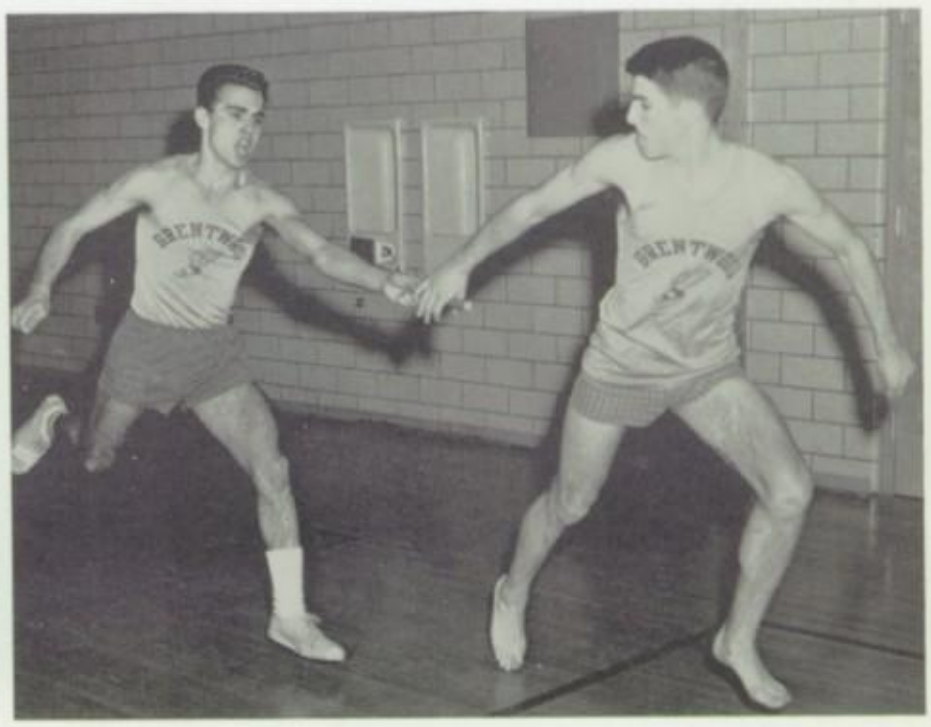
MOUNT LEBANON





Under the leadership of Robert W. Schwille, Brentwood's Cross Country team ended the season with a 5-4 record in dual competition, losing by close scores to Baldwin 27-28, and to hard competitors like North Allegheny who remained State Champions for the third year in a row.

Next year's runners will feel the loss of Seniors: George Benson, Tom Fulton, Charles Jordan, Jack Rozzo, Richard Ryan, and Carl Tannenbaum.

The 1963 nucleus will be composed of returning lettermen Gary Barchfield, Robert Kerr, Michael Davic, and Vincent Gauss.

Cross Country

The Cross Country team highlighted the '62 season when they defeated 18 Class B teams to take first place and a trophy in the Central Invitational meet. The high point of the meet was the sparkling first place finish by Jack Rozzo out of 150 runners.

In W.P.I.A.L. competition Jack Rozzo placed ninth and qualified to go to State where he finished 42nd out of 289 runners.

Junior Varsity

The Junior Varsity basketball squad provided Brentwood fans with many exciting performances during the season. Under the coaching of Robert W. Schwille the J. V.'s trained to replace this year's seniors. Sophomores Mike Davic, Dave Jordan, Bill Wycoff, Dick Hagerty and Paul Malecki formed the nucleus for the team and are the prospective ball players for next year's varsity squad.

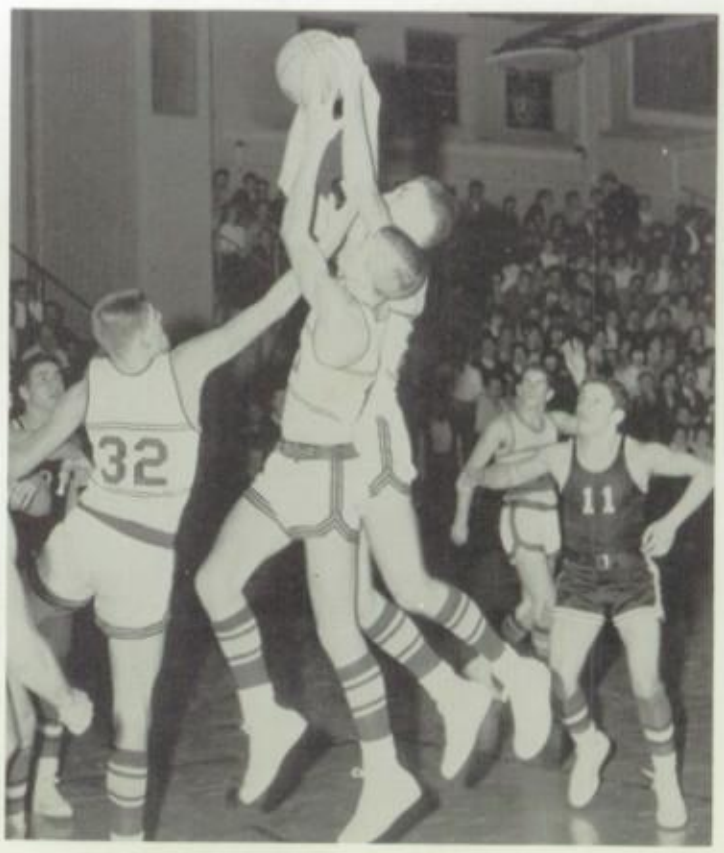
Junior High

Coached by George J. Reed the Junior High team got off to a slow start this year, but as the season progressed, the team picked up. The J. V.'s can expect good ball-playing from the future sophomores.

Stretch, Neesh, stretch!

Some like it nice and soft, don't they?

Now what do we do?



Need a hand?

Hi there—

Keep your mind on the game!

Find that four-leaf clover

Who let him in?

It hurts to look when you're shooting?

That's what I.C.'s and flubber can do!

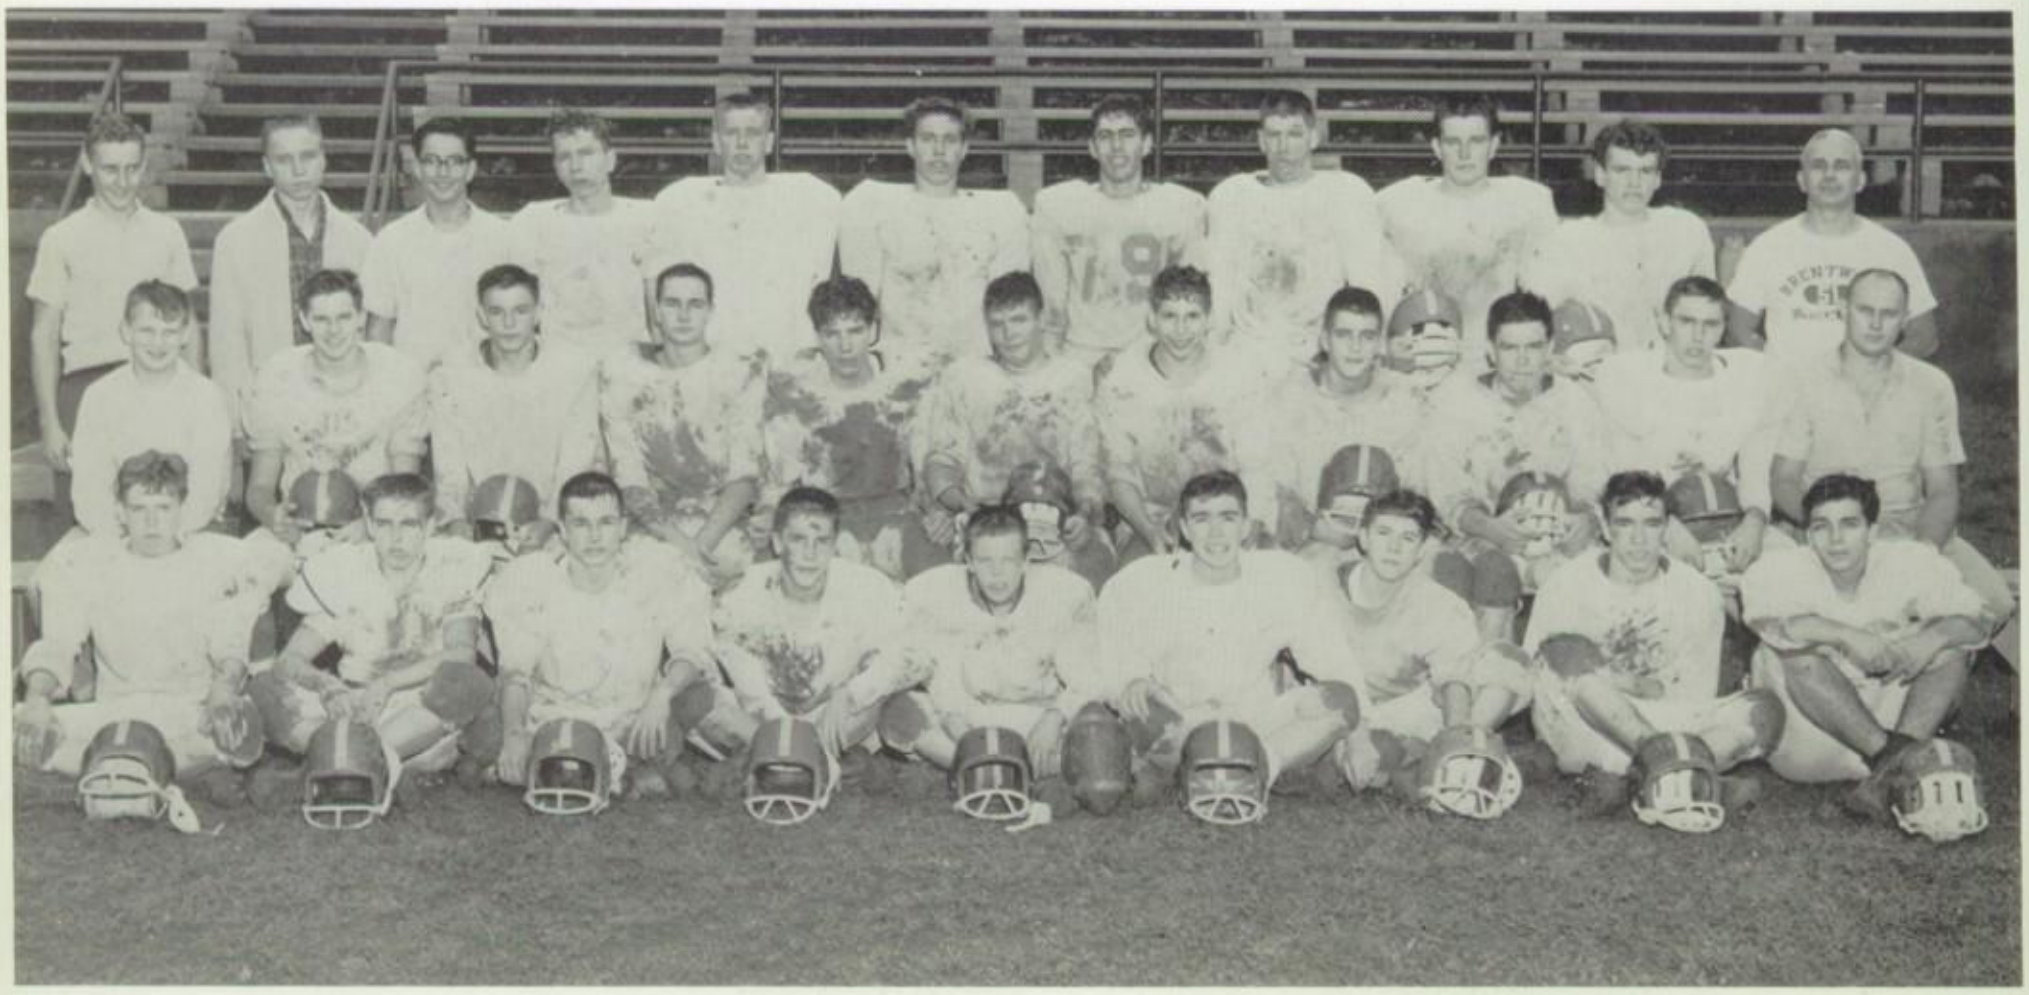
Varsity Lettermen's Club

The main accomplishment of the Varsity Lettermen's Club was the awarding of blazers to the three-year lettermen. This was made possible through their annual dance held November 24.

President	Harry Herzberger
Vice-President	George Benson
Secretary	Rich Ryan
Treasurer	Joe Curtain

Junior Varsity Football

The Junior Varsity football team concluded its schedule by defeating Snowden 7-0 and Upper St. Clair 6-0. Defeats by Bethel 12-6, Thomas Jefferson 14-8, and West Mifflin South 13-6 marred their record. Next year's varsity team will depend on the fundamentals these boys learned from their coaches Richard Barclay and George Reed.



ORGANIZATIONS

The members of the Anthem Staff, led by the competent co-editors, Beverly Karhut and George Benson, worked hard to publish a fine yearbook. The staff wishes to thank Mrs. Appel whose unfailing help and infinite patience enabled us to produce the 1963 Anthem.

National Honor Society

Members for the Society are chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Miss Annajean Grieve supervises the Brentwood chapter of the National Honor Society.

Under the direction of our principal, Mr. Francis Deasy, the Senior High Student Council sponsored the Snoball, drew up a student handbook, and collaborated with the P.T.A. to form a student canteen. Representatives elected from homerooms composed this representative board which was led by Ruth Mesing, President, George Benson, Vice - President, and Suzanne Geyer, Secretary.

Senior High

Student Councils

Junior High

Each junior high homeroom elected a representative to the Junior High Student Council which helped to plan their activities and assisted the Senior High Student Council on the student handbook. (Officers not yet elected)

GAL

The Girls' Athletic League, guided by Mrs. Claire Bell, is composed of senior girls whose main event of the year is the annual G.A.L. formal dance in March. This year the girls achieved a famous first at Brentwood High by holding a girls' soccer game for the senior high in the gym. They used half of the proceeds for their dance and donated the other half to the prom. The officers of the club are:

President	Donna Gojsovich
Vice-President	Diane Casto
Secretary	Linda Lewis
Treasurer	Carol Maciejewski

The Key Club, a subsidiary of the Kiwanis Club, functions as a service organization under the guidance of Mr. Bertil von Philp. The Club, composed of senior high boys elected Carl Tannenbaum as president, George Hawryluk as vice-president, Edward Brennan as secretary, and Robert Brennan as treasurer.

Key Club

Octet

The Boys' Octet, directed by Miss Ann Salinger, is selected through competitive try outs. During the year this group sings in the Christmas program, the Spring Fesival and various meetings of school and community organizations. Composing the Octet this year are first tenors, Dennis Salmon and Wayne Long, second tenors, Paul Malecki and John Layhue, baritones, Eric Ehland and Gregory Byrne, and basses, Richard Wolowski and Ronald Facenda.

Twelve girls, chosen on a highly competitive basis, compose the Ensemble which Miss Ann Salinger directs. This group performs in the Christmas program and Spring Festival as well as at various community activities. The voices are first sopranos Tira Martin, Gail McCall, Eileen Rodermund, and Diane Bert, second sopranos Rhonda Bartsch, Sharon Geiger, Dianne Casto, and Catherine Tarker, and altos Karen Jennings, Susan Bracken, Kathy McAleese, and Sylvia Wysocki.

Ensemble

Girls' Chorus

The Girls' Chorus demonstrated its fine musical ability in various holiday assemblies and programs and in the Spring Festival. Throughout the year these senior high girls worked hard under the direction of Miss Ann Salinger.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club, directed by Mr. Ross Munn, worked hard throughout the year to achieve musical excellence. The boys lent their voices successfully to the Christmas program and the Spring Festival. The Glee Club is open to those senior high boys who like to sing.

Senior Choir

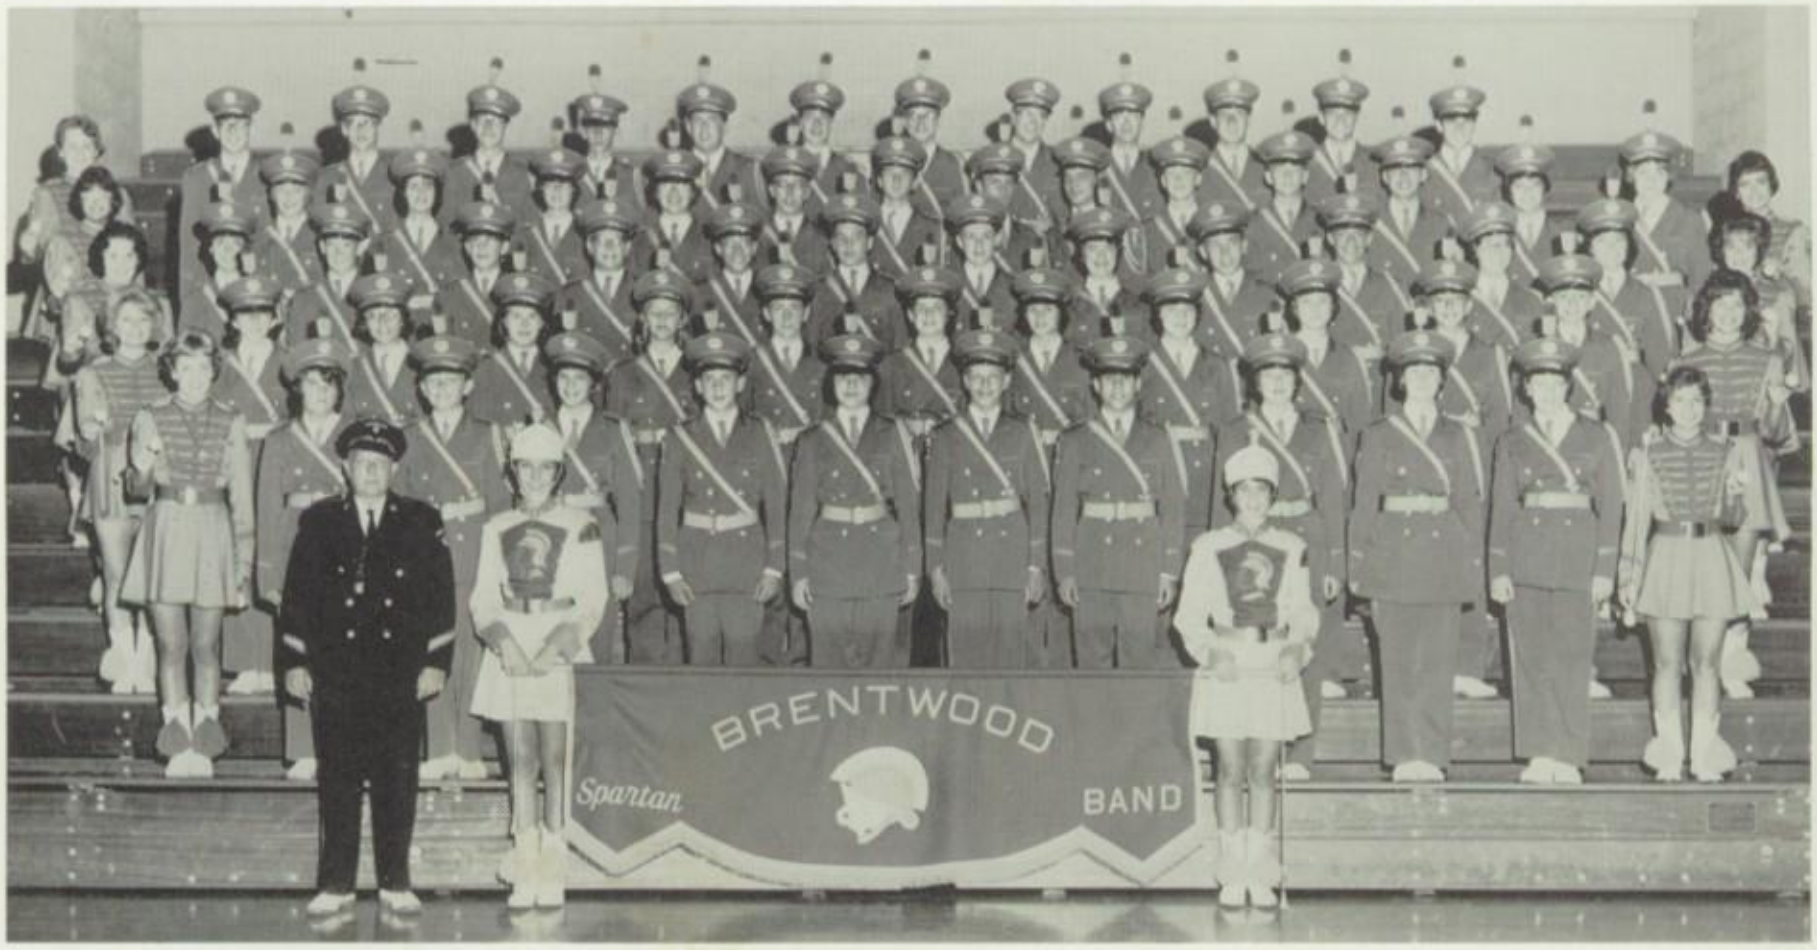
Miss Ann Salinger coached and directed the Senior Choir this year. This select group, clad in blue and gold robes, willingly gave up their mornings to rehearse at eight o'clock for their part in the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter programs plus the annual Spring Festival.

Junior Choir

The Junior Choir was composed of junior high girls directed by Miss Ann Salinger. The girls worked hard to memorize their music and practiced faithfully in the mornings and after school in preparation for their part in the Christmas program and the Spring Festival.

Show Band

The Show Band is a small group of musicians selected and directed by Mr. John Rumbarger. This versatile band can change from a big, brass sound to a soft, dreamy sound at the flick of the baton. They practice once a month during an activities period and perform for the Activities Play and Senior Class Play.



Marching Band

The Spartan Marching Band and Spartanettes, directed by Mr. John Rumbarger, spend hours during August, after school during football season, and before July 4th in grueling practice for the excellent half-time shows they produce and parades in which they appear throughout the year. Mr. Rumbarger is aided by Edward Slaughter, head drill-master, and his squad composed of Ruth Mesing, Susan Wells, Barbara Gee, Arnold Cantor, and David Chorba. Leading the Spartanettes is Jean Slater. Her hard-working squad, Dolores Dubel, Donna Jo Pearson, Rae Ann Richards, Cynthia Smith, Rita Dietrich, Kim Yeo, and Patricia Croke, compose one of the finest and most co-ordinated group of majorettes.

Senior Band

The Senior Concert Band, directed by Mr. John Rumbarger, tries to achieve a high standard of musicianship through long hours of work with their director. Each day during period four they prepare for their annual concert, the Musicale, and for the Spring Festival and graduation. Marilyn Hacker serves as secretary and student bandleader; Sylvia Wysocki is band librarian.

The Junior Concert Band, under the baton of Mr. John Rumbarger, works hard with much spirit and enthusiasm preparing for their annual concert, the Musicette. Their student bandleader is Ronald Roth, and the band librarian is Barbara Grazer.

Junior High Band

B.H.S. Varsity Cheerleaders

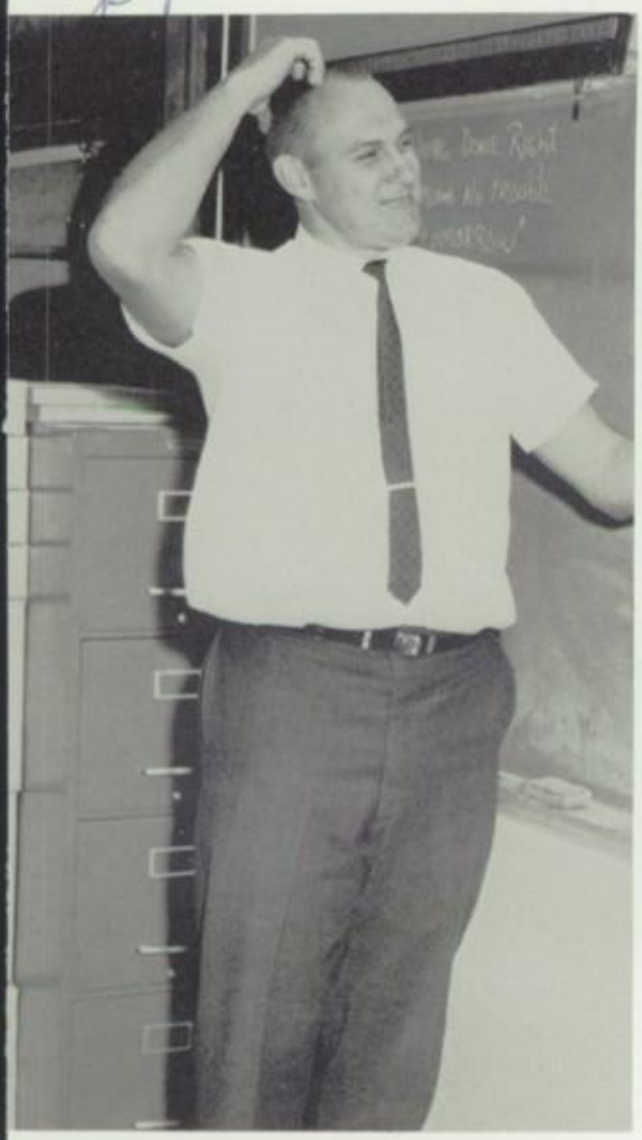
This year the Varsity Cheerleading Squad has set a new precedent for squads to come with their accuracy and precision. Headed by Beverly Karhut and sponsored by Miss Jean Angst, the squad was composed of seniors: Linda Kautz, Sheryl Oppenheim, and Penny Stephens; juniors: Mary Ellen Carletto, and Candace Moore; and sophomores: Nancy Kindle, and Susan Scott.

The Junior High Cheerleaders stirred up pep and enthusiasm in the Junior High Basketball games. Sponsored by Miss Jean Angst, and captained by Patricia Spatharos, they certainly boosted the teams' spirits.

Junior High Cheerleaders

A Guide to Underclassmen Part II

To promote better teacher-pupil understanding, we present these enlightening glimpses of the academic mind.



"Yes, I still use that greasy kid stuff. Why?"

"Come on, band, let's play Melancholy Baby!"

"He stuck in his thumb and pulled out a plumb."

"Dear Abbey"

"She's not bad, but Miss October was better."

Chess Club

The activities of the Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. George Reed, consist of playing chess games with teams of various schools throughout the area. President of the club is Michael Burik, Vice-President is Keith Rosser, and Secretary-Treasurer is Robert Crough.

The officers this year are:

President ..... Rhonda Bartsch
Vice-President ..... Carol Lenz
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Karen Jennings

The Library Club, under the supervision of the librarian, Miss Ruth Lidstone, is a service organization open to senior high girls. During their study periods and after school the girls work in the library replacing books, repairing them, and working at the desk.

Library Club

Investment Club

The Investment Club, which Mr. William Douglass advises, helps students understand the methods of buying and selling stock and is open to anyone interested in investing. The stocks chosen this year by home room representatives are Revlon and Gulf.

The officers are:

President ..... Louise Mangieri
Vice-President ..... Jack Douglass
Secretary ..... Patricia Rich
Treasurer ..... Conrad Koch
Public Relations Director ..... Marilyn Hacker

F.T.A.

The Future Teachers of America Club, sponsored by Miss Elizabeth Barchfeld, tries to give its members an accurate picture of the teaching profession. It is open to senior high boys and girls interested in teaching. The officers this year are: President, Donna Gojsovich, Vice-President, Carol Maciejewski, Secretary, Kaliope Kousaleos, and treasurer, Sylvia Wysocki.

Sound Squad

With the able aid of Mr. Sanford DeBerry, the members of the sound squad, interested senior high students, supply sound equipment for dances, show classroom movies and slides during their study halls, and help record assemblies and concerts.

Hall Squad

The Hall Squad is an important factor in keeping confusion in the halls to a minimum. Composed of seniors chosen by the sponsor, Mr. John Evans, and captained by Joseph Maskew and Frank Hutton, they direct traffic, withstand insults, and are tramped upon in order to maintain order. Congratulations!

Biology Research Club

Under the leadership of Mr. Michael Sincevich the Biology Research Club studies correct laboratory techniques and performs dissections to acquire a knowledge that will help them in later years. The members of the club include senior high students who are interested in biology or science as a career. This year the officers are:

President ..... Kathy Haviland
Vice-President ..... Charles Keil
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Terry Birch

Pep Club

The main objective of the 1962-63 Pep Club is to inject spirit and enthusiasm into the student body. The seniors who compose this group are led by Mr. William Bennett. They sit together at all home basketball and football games to cheer the teams to victory. This year Carl Takacs was elected as president, Richard Stoerkel as vice-president, Carol Huff as secretary, and Dorothy Billanti as treasurer.

Stage Guild

Directed by Mr. James Means the Stage Guild, among other things, takes charge of lighting effects, microphones, and scenery for the plays. The hard working boys in this group are: Alan Smith, Howard Morse, George Blohm, Ronald Tschippert, Philip Henkel, Albert Rodibaugh, Arthur Ihrig, William Spencer, Jerry Van Vlack, Donald Heim, and Jerry Luck.

Office Aids

The office aids, under the direction of Mrs. Grace Kightlinger, work hard to help keep the office running efficiently. Some of their tasks are operating the switchboard, collecting absentee sheets, running errands to separate rooms, and filing various items. The members are: Marcelene Zakowski, Kathy Brethauer, Patricia Rich, Penny Stephens, Carol Peters, Janet Schuster, Linda Gratton, Lillian Henning.

High School Red Cross

Formerly the Junior Red Cross Council, this club, sponsored by Mrs. Marjorie Steadman, is now known as the High School Red Cross. It is composed of senior high students and functions as a service organization in conjunction with the Office of Educational Relations or County-Wide Council. The club sponsors projects such as talent shows, albums, and school chests which are sent to foreign countries. Each year this club sends two delegates to the High School Red Cross Training Center at Kiski.

Y-Teens

The Junior Y-Teens and Sophomore Y-Teens sponsored separate activities this year which included a car wash, Twirp Week, and a bake sale.

Junior Officers

President	Diane Bert
Vice-President	Katherine Gollings
Secretary	Julie Saia
Treasurer	Sharon Leibson
IIC Representative	Candace Moore

Sophomore Officers

President	Karen Stanko
Vice-President	Linda Leslie
Secretary	Elizabeth Datig
Treasurer	Bonnie Heath
IIC Representative	Katie Saia

Cafeteria

The efficient cafeteria staff, headed by Mrs. Hester Mohler, works hard to prepare delicious and nourishing meals for the students. The staff includes: Mrs. Clara Roth, Mrs. Ida Held, Mrs. Ruby Fricke, Mrs. Mary Winovich, Mrs. Grace Schade, Mrs. Catherine Smith, Mrs. Helen Parise, Mrs. Dorothy Billanti, and Mrs. Margaret Lauderbaugh.

Custodians

Our three custodians, Carl Reinhart, Joseph Flosnik, and Francis Garvey, do an efficient job in keeping the school clean and warm, and the outside grounds neat.

ACTIVITIES

Mike,

So a really neat junior that I just met this year.

Never forget the Retreat, fellowship, and of course those real wild committee meetings on Saturday mornings!

You're a real sweet kid and bound to go far with your great brains and personality.

Lots of luck and success in what ever you attempt.

This year's G.A.L., entitled Mint Julep, was held on March 1. A white trellis with glittering mint-green flowers centered the dance floor. The semi-abstract murals featured showboats and southern belles. Jack Parcell's Dixie Land Band played on the veranda of an old southern mansion. Bouquets of roses and candles transformed the gym into a misty dream of the Old South.

G.A.L. Dance

The G.A.L. sponsored dances and a soccer game to raise money for the annual affair. The girls spent many tedious hours shaping roses and blossoms from paper, drawing murals, and planning refreshments and entertainment for the affair. With the cooperation from the shop department this year's dance was an outstanding success!

Miguel:
Estoy muy contenta de haber tenido la oportunidad de conocerte, creo que eres muy agradable e inteligente y hablas muy bien español, si algún día vas a Chile pasa a visitarme mi casa es tu casa. Con mis mejores deseos para el futuro, tu compañera y amiga de Chile.
Ma. Cristina.

Exchange Students

Brentwood High welcomed four exchange students and one exchange teacher this year. All members of the exchange were South American neighbors except Ali Keyhoni, who lives in Teheran, Iran. Maria Vasquez visited us from Columbia; Guillermo Tabachnik, from Argentina; and Maria Christina Sanchez, from Chile. Our exchange teacher, Miss Noemi Scheurerlein, teaches Spanish, geography, and history in Argentina. Included in the group of our Spanish-speaking friends is Mrs. Rosario Caminero from Cuba, who teaches the Spanish classes for Mrs. O'Brien.

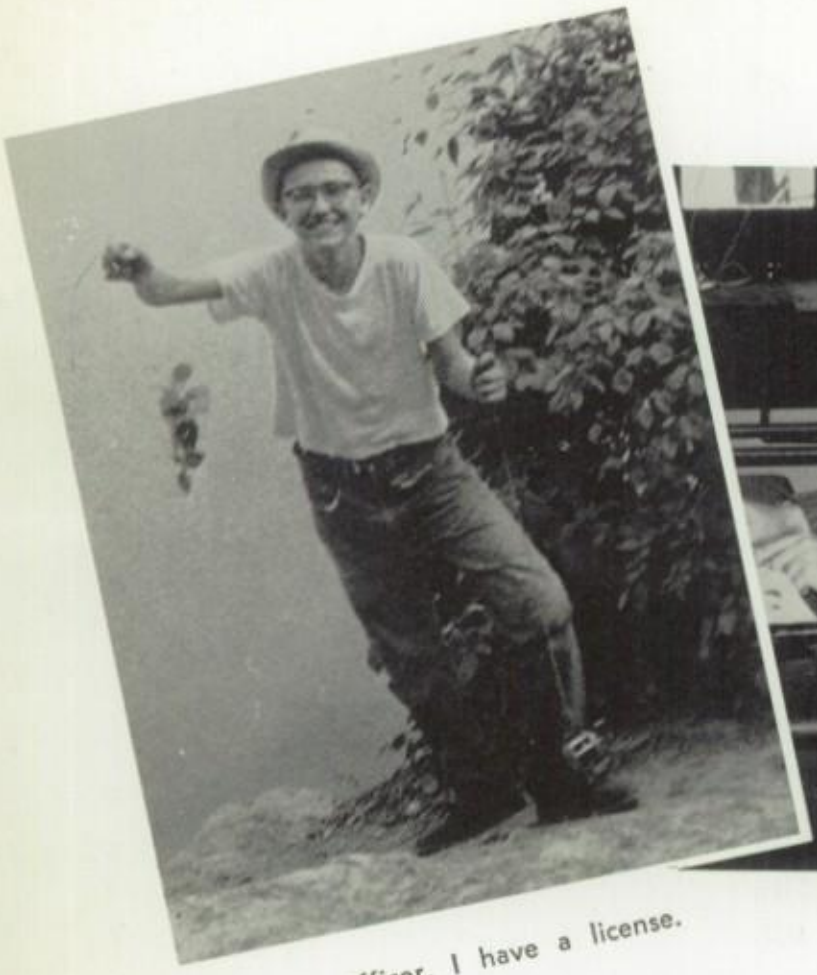
We hope our new friends enjoyed their stay at Brentwood as much as we enjoyed having them. The exchange program should strengthen the friendship between our nations.



Sure, officer, I have a license.

"What's this?

"Shut up or I'll hit you with my purse!"

I hear it's better for the face than cold cream.

To one of the nicest and smartest kids in Brentwood High. How did you get so smart. You must have been born with a lot of it. So was I, but most of it leaked out by now. You can tell that by how stupid I am. Never forget all the crazy times we've had in Diffy's class, Mr. Reed's, and all the others. If it weren't for you I probably would have it a lot harder than I do now. Lots of luck in all you do in your feture years. Stay the way you are and I'm sure you'll succeed. R.M.A.
